

When this link to Newark is completed there will be a continuous line by electric railway between Canton and Cincinnati and from Canton to the lakes. With the exception of the N. O. T. from Akron to Cleveland all the lines are controlled by the firm of Tucker, Anthony & Co., and other eastern capitalists, who are interested in the Canton local lines.

OUR DUTY IN THE ISLANDS.

The shocking details of American military conduct in the Philippine Islands, as reported by General Miles, lead thoughtless Americans to see only two policies practicable there. The one is a continuous military tyranny until the islands are subjugated or swept of human life. The other is abandonment of the islands forthwith.

There is a third course open to the government of the United States. It is the course dictated by the national conscience, by the constitution and by obvious self-interest. It is subordination of the military power in the islands to the civil power and actuation of the civil power by the spirit if not by the letter of the constitution of the United States.

This course is as simple as it is honest, effectual and obligatory. We cannot withdraw from the islands at this time without treachery and ignominy, nor can we suffer injustice in the islands to proceed in our name.

We must do thoroughly the task imposed upon us without our seeking, the completion of which, if rightly done, will add millions to the independent people of the world and will emphasize to other nations the wisdom and mercy of democracy.

To do this task as we are bound in conscience to do it requires that every offending officer in the army of the United States shall be held to a strict accounting for his conduct. It requires that Congress shall unflinchingly probe the war department and reform it without fear or favor.

To permit the army of the United States to become either brutish or corrupt is to imperil the foundations of the government. Every bloody instruction we teach to the people of the islands will recoil upon our own heads.

The Philippine islands may have been bestowed upon us as a warning.

REPRESENTATION IN THE STATE CONVENTION.

Under the rule adopted by the Democratic State Central Committee of one delegate to the State convention for every 500 votes cast for Bigelow for secretary of state, and one delegate for every fraction of 250 votes so cast, Cuyahoga county will have the largest delegation, 73, and Geauga the smallest, a single delegate. The other large representations will be Hamilton county, 42; Franklin, 34; Montgomery, 25; Lucas, 15; Stark, 14; Butler, 13; and Darke, Licking, Tuscarawas, Allen, Seneca and Richland, 10 each. The convention will consist of 690 delegates; necessary to a choice, 346 votes.

The joint legislative districts in Ohio are as follows: Adams-Pike, Carroll-Harrison, Lake-Gauga, Ashland-Holmes, Morgan-Noble, Vinton-Hocking, Delaware-Morrow and Madison-Fayette. In the former apportionment Delaware was a separate district, as were Ashland, Holmes, Madison and Fayette. Marion was joined to Morrow, but the former county had increased in population so as to entitle it to a representative in the house, and Morrow was just then joined to Delaware. There is a constitutional amendment pending, to be voted on by the people this fall, that will allow every county in the state a member of the house, no matter what the population may be.

The court of appeals of New York is bound to be unpopular with the corporations. It has held that the law providing for a tax on franchises is constitutional. The trusts will soon have to turn their attention to electing judges instead of legislators and the like.

WILLING TOOL OF BOSSES.

The Toledo Times says: "It is all right to have two men or even one name a gubernatorial candidate when these men are close enough to the people to voice their wishes correctly." This is the first time a newspaper has said that Mark Hanna and George B. Cox are "close enough to the people to voice their wishes correctly." It is preposterous to preach such stuff. But the Times is a Hanna organ and bows most submissively to the will of Hanna, Cox et al, and is always glad to say something nice in defense of them, even if it does make itself ludicrous in the effort.

Under the call for the republican state convention new delegates will have to be selected from Athens county. But what is the use of any of the counties sending delegates? The ticket has already been agreed upon by Cox and Hanna.

BEGIN WITH PAYNE.

(Toledo Bee.)

The grand jury is to look into the Tyner affair. It is a good thing that some one is going to make an effort to look into it. Postmaster-General Payne and Attorney-General Knox have been entirely too busy to set about to punish the offenders. If there is a shake up in the post office department it might well begin with the postmaster-general. He is merely a professional politician, and he was appointed because the president thought he could secure a few delegations for him in the next national convention.

"True for you, dear," he replied. "I've got it locked up in the office safe, where they can't get at it."—Philadelphia Press.

COMPARISON

OF TWO PAPERS INVITED BY THE ADVOCATE.

A Few Remarks Resulting from the A-T's Self-Praise—The Scheidler Accident.

Thursday's American-Tribune in patting itself on the back made the following statement:

It may interest the people of the city of Newark, and particularly American Tribune readers to know that this paper on Wednesday printed fourteen exclusive news stories—local and telegraph—and stories, too, of striking interest to every intelligent newspaper reader. More than this, its first edition contained a full and complete account of the lamentable disaster which robbed Newark of one of its foremost citizens—Reinhard Scheidler—and every one of the American Tribune's thousands of readers were in possession of the facts of the accident within a half hour after it happened.

"Other papers may interest themselves with issuing counting room extras, but the American Tribune believes in serving its readers, even if there is a few minutes' delay in starting the press."

"The fourteen exclusive stories and the fact that the American Tribune's entire city clientele were enabled to read the big local story of the day, goes to show that if you want the news while it is news, you must read the American Tribune."

The Advocate is not in the habit of paying attention to the self-laudation of its esteemed contemporary and the petty flings of competitors are usually passed without comment, but we cannot resist the temptation to reproduce the foregoing article from yesterday's American-Tribune. It is unique in local newspaperdom.

For a paper that has been so badly "scooped" not only on the accident that has wholly absorbed public attention the past two days but in numerous occasions within the past few months—for instance the Miller & Struble arrests, the Garrison incident, Henning suit and countless others—to come out as it did and make a lot of absurd claims makes it appear decidedly ridiculous.

As to the Scheidler accident: The Advocate went to press at the usual time Wednesday in order to make the out of town interurban train connections and nearly the whole edition was printed when news of the disaster came to this office by phone five minutes after the accident happened. At 4:30 an extra "counting room" edition was published and hundreds of copies were sold on the streets. Every carrier boy was recalled and each subscriber was given a copy of the extra. Moreover the Advocate's second edition with a far better account of the accident than any other paper had that day was out on the street before the American-Tribune's first (and only) edition appeared. The marked superiority of the Advocate's account placed in the hands of every Advocate subscriber was the common talk of the town.

Yesterday the Advocate carried seven columns giving all the details of the accident while the A-T. printed about half that amount in which there were numerous inaccuracies.

The Tribune says it printed fourteen "exclusive" "telegraph and local stories." We beg pardon. It did no such thing. It may have printed some reprint matter that the Advocate didn't care to use but no TELEGRAPH items of any consequence did the A-T. print that day that the Advocate did not have. As for local "exclusives" there may have been a few personals and minor items.

An amusing thing about the A-T's boast is that in the very issue in which the self-praise is given, appears six first-class local news items that the Advocate printed the preceding day.

The Advocate will be pleased to have every one of its subscribers buy the Tribune for a sufficient time to make a daily comparison of the two papers.

The Advocate again invites comparison with its neighbor any day and every day.

DANGEROUS VERTIGO

Dizziness or Swirling of the Head Associated With a Sense of Fullness, Dull Pain or Nervous Sick Headache, Is a Certain Indication of an Oncoming Apoplexy or Paralysis.

DR. A. W. CHASE NERVE PILLS

Cure by Rebuilding, Reinvigorating and Revitalizing The Nervous System and Furnishing to the Different Organs of the Body the Power to do Their Work Properly And to The Fullest Extent.

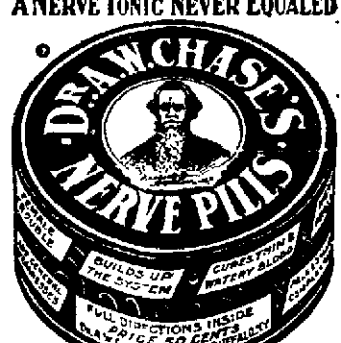

If the person subject to attack of dizziness, or swimming of the head, commonly called vertigo, would only stop to realize that these symptoms are not a disease in themselves, not temporary ailments, but the plainest sort of warnings from nature of grave troubles of deeper origin of an exhausted nervous system or of an oncoming apoplexy, epilepsy or paralysis, the matter would receive prompt attention. Dr. A. W. Chase knew this and provided the cure in his celebrated Nerve Pills, a medicine that brings back the glow of health and strength by its power to furnish just what the ily fed, half-starved nervous system needs, good, rich wholesome blood and nerve force or energy.

NEWARK, OHIO.
MR. A. MOORE

Mr. A. Moore of No. 238 Locust street, Newark, Ohio, says: "I was troubled with sleeplessness and bad attacks of nervous headaches—the kind that leave one weak. I got a box of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills at Bricker's City Drug Store and have found them just what I needed. I can recommend them highly to anyone."

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.—Signature and portrait of Dr. A. W. Chase on each box of the genuine. For sale by dealers, 50c a box, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., 257 Washington Street, Buffalo, N.Y.

A NERVE TONIC NEVER EQUALED.

THIS SHAPED BOX—NO OTHER

Mrs. William Spencer of No. 105 Granger street Syracuse, N. Y., says: "I was always nervous, but of late years I could not sleep, was intensely nervous, ringing sounds in the ears and sharp noises in my head at night. My strength was way down—had attacks of vertigo when I was so dizzy I had to catch hold of something until it passed off. This condition certainly needed attention as it was growing steadily worse. Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills were called to my attention and I got a box. The results were splendid—the nerves became quiet—the noises ringing in the head together with the dizzy spells disappeared completely and I began to sleep well again. The general strength came back and as a result I feel well every day again."

MASONIC

INITIATION IS CONDUCTED BY ACME LODGE.

Hundred Masons from Newark and All Parts of the County Present—A Banquet Followed.

Thursday was a great day in the history of Acme Lodge No. 554, F. & A. M., of this city as it was marked by the initiation of a class of five candidates and the visitation to the lodge and inspection of the work by District Lecturer O. Poppleton of Mr. Vernon.

Work was commenced in the Master's degree at 3 o'clock, with Worshipful Master J. L. Worth presiding. The work was continued until 6 o'clock when an intermission was taken for lunch, after which the work was resumed and continued until about 10 o'clock. Different visiting Masters of lodges assisted Worshipful Master Worth in conducting the work. These were C. L. V. Holtz, George B. Orr and H. J. Hughes. It is needless to say that the work was put on in very fine style. The class of candidates initiated consisted of Messrs. Jesse E. Elliott, R. M. Smith, W. P. Taylor, A. P. Schauweker and W. G. Corne.

Over one hundred Masons, comprising members of Newark and Acme lodges, and visitors from all over the county were present. The meeting was especially favored by the presence of District Lecturer O. Poppleton, who made an excellent address. Grand Junior Warden L. P. Schaus and the venerable brothers, Samuel Dinsmore, who is probably the oldest Mason in Ohio, having been a Mason 63 years this summer, Hon. C. B. Giffin of Granville, a Mason of nearly 50 years standing, and Past Grand Master William M. Cunningham of Newark, who has been a Mason over 50 years.

At the close of the inspection about 10 o'clock, an elegant banquet was served in the banquetting room of the lodge, to which over one hundred guests sat down. Worshipful Master J. L. Worth presided gracefully as toastmaster and brief and appropriate addresses were made by well known Masons present in the following order: Judge E. M. P. Brister, Dr. Rogers of Hanover, Worshipful Master A. A. Stasel, Prof. Hundley of Denison University, Rev. J. C. Schindel, Prof. Stockberger of Denison university, H. J. Hughes W. M. of Pataskala lodge, Jesse E. Elliott, R. M. Smith, W. G. Corne, W. P. Taylor, A. P. Schauweker and George O. Orr.

The evening was very delightfully spent and the occasion was a perfect success in every particular, reflecting great credit on Acme lodge and all who participated.

Following is a list of the visitors present, outside of the Newark lodges: From Pataskala—W. H. Harding, E. H. Grove, B. L. Hawke, H. Brooks, M. D. Mead, H. J. Hughes, C. D. Coons, S. C. Manger, R. Conine, J. M. Friend Jr.

From Granville—C. B. Giffin, E. J. Barnes, J. D. Evans, W. W. Stockberger, T. L. Watson, H. P. Hundley, G. G. Baker, John DeBow, Robert Wylie.

From Hebron—Hugh Oatman, D. A. Taylor, C. V. Chism, Wm. Comiford, C. A. Swisher, C. A. Pence, F. G. Chism, J. T. Kirk, H. A. House, N. E. Price.

From Wilkins—C. L. V. Holtz, P. L. Shelling, G. T. Taverner, J. M. Swisher, Carey A. Wilson, O. F. Miller.

MARRIAGE

Of A. W. Yost, Formerly of Newark to Miss Alice Tubbs at Coshocton, Hundred Guests.

A. W. Yost, formerly of Kuster's restaurant, this city now connected with the Central Union Telephone company at Coshocton was married to Miss Alice Tubbs a charming young lady of Coshocton, on Wednesday evening. The Coshocton Age contains the following account of the wedding: "One of the prettiest weddings that has taken place in this city for some time was that of Miss Alice Tubbs and Amos W. Yost, at the Farmers' hotel, Wednesday evening. Rev. Father Synan performed the ceremony and Miss Bernice Kennedy of Tuscarawas, played the beautiful wedding march. Miss Grace Yost of Newark, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid and J. Calvin Merrell was best man. The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Tubbs, was gowned in white and looked exceedingly charming. She carried a shower of pink roses.

"Mr. and Mrs. Yost were the recipients of a large number of beautiful presents, including silverware, china and cut glass. After the ceremony a bountiful wedding feast was prepared and served by Messrs. Robert Dorsey, Bert Royer and L. S. Yeager. Between seventy-five and one hundred guests were present including the following from out of the city: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sherman, and daughter of Dennison, Mrs. J. A. Graham of Canal Dover, Mr. and Mrs. Wirtley of Urica, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Rice of near Watsaw, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Graham of Avondale, Mrs. Wells of Columbus, Mrs. W. B. Yost and daughter, Nellie, of Thornville, Misses Grace and Lizzie Yost of Newark, Miss Kennedy of Tuscarawas and Prof. W. D. Lynch of Canal Dover."

The groom is a nephew of John, Patrick, Peter and Thomas Kennedy of this city, and has many friends in Newark and Perry county who unite in extending their congratulations.

FOUR SONS

Carried the Remains of Their Father to His Last Resting Place—Jacob Miller's Funeral.

The funeral of the late Jacob A. Miller, Esq., one of the county's best known and best citizens, took place from his late home in Mary Ann township on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. The funeral services were held in the Rock Fork cauren, near the Miller home, which the deceased so dearly loved in his life time, and the interment was made in the cemetery adjoining the church. The funeral was one of the best held in the county for years, as the deceased was widely known and a universally respected and beloved citizen.

A touching feature of the funeral was the fact that his four elder sons, Messrs. O. J. Miller, Henry and Frank Miller acted as pallbearers.

Mr. Joseph P. Miller, after having spent over 32 years for some time, was advised by Dr. Richard H. Miller, of his Stomach and Liver troubles, and he was advised to take Hagee's Cordial of Cod Liver Oil. He did so, and he was troubled with indigestion, bad appetite or constipation. He took the Tablets a trial and he was more than satisfied with the result. For sale at 25 cents per box at all druggists.

WITH SPRING comes that ever-present lack of vital force.

It seems to open wide the door-way to innumerable disorders. Languor and lassitude consume energy and life; appetite fails, indigestion, lung and bronchial troubles appear, blood is bad, and a dragging sensation seems to be carrying you to a total collapse.

Hagee's Cordial of Cod Liver Oil (with Hagee's hot water) is the favorite spring remedy used by thousands of physicians, builds up run-down conditions quicker than anything known to medical science. Contains all the good of cod liver oil without the grease.

Sold by all druggists. Prepared by Katharine Chemical Co., St. Louis, Mo.

From Johnstown—Fred Simpson, D. W. Scovell, C. M. Ross, Paul T. Simpson.

From Brownsville—George D. Orr, J. S. Loughman, I. A. Drumm, L. S. Loughman.

Of A. W. Yost, Formerly of Newark to Miss Alice Tubbs at Coshocton, Hundred Guests.

A. W. Yost, formerly of Kuster's restaurant, this city now connected with the Central Union Telephone company at Coshocton was married to Miss Alice Tubbs a charming young lady of Coshocton, on Wednesday evening. The Coshocton Age contains the following account of the wedding: "One of the prettiest weddings that has taken place in this city for some time was that of Miss Alice Tubbs and Amos W. Yost, at the Farmers' hotel, Wednesday evening. Rev. Father Synan performed the ceremony and Miss Bernice Kennedy of Tuscarawas, played the beautiful wedding march. Miss Grace Yost of Newark, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid and J. Calvin Merrell was best man. The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Tubbs, was gowned in white and looked exceedingly charming. She carried a shower of pink roses.

"Mr. and Mrs. Yost were the recipients of a large number of beautiful presents, including silverware, china and cut glass. After the ceremony a bountiful wedding feast was prepared and served by Messrs. Robert Dorsey, Bert Royer and L. S. Yeager. Between seventy-five and one hundred guests were present including the following from out of the city: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sherman, and daughter of Dennison, Mrs. J. A. Graham of Canal Dover, Mr. and Mrs. Wirtley of Urica, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Rice of near Watsaw, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Graham of Avondale, Mrs. Wells of Columbus, Mrs. W. B. Yost and daughter, Nellie, of Thornville, Misses Grace and Lizzie Yost of Newark, Miss Kennedy of Tuscarawas and Prof. W. D. Lynch of Canal Dover."

The groom is a nephew of John, Patrick, Peter and Thomas Kennedy of this city, and has many friends in Newark and Perry county who unite in extending their congratulations.

FOUR SONS

Carried the Remains of Their Father to His Last Resting Place—Jacob Miller's Funeral.

The funeral of the late Jacob A. Miller, Esq., one of the county's best known and best citizens, took place from his late home in Mary Ann township on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. The funeral services were held in the Rock Fork cauren, near the Miller home, which the deceased so dearly loved in his life time, and the interment was made in the cemetery adjoining the church. The funeral was one of the best held in the county for years, as the deceased was widely known and a universally respected and beloved citizen.

A touching feature of the funeral was the fact that his four elder sons, Messrs. O. J. Miller, Henry and Frank Miller acted as pallbearers.

Mr. Joseph P. Miller, after having spent over 32 years for some time, was advised by Dr. Richard H. Miller, of his Stomach and Liver troubles, and he was advised to take Hagee's Cordial of Cod Liver Oil. He did so, and he was troubled with indigestion, bad appetite or constipation. He took the Tablets a trial and he was more than satisfied with the result. For sale at 25 cents per box at all druggists.

OLDEST WOMAN

In Central Ohio Dies Near Wilkin This County.

Mrs. Elizabeth Moore 103 Years Old, But Reported to be 108, Passed Away—Mother of Seven Children—Sketch of Her Life.

Mrs. Elizabeth Moore, the oldest person in Central Ohio, died early Friday morning at the home of her son-in-law, Adam Maharg, in eastern Licking county, one and a half miles northwest of Wilkin's Run.

It is reported from Wilkin today that Mrs. Moore was 108 years and eleven months old, but from a member of the family two years ago the Advocate ascertained that Mrs. Moore was born on May 16, 1800, thus making her age 103 years, less fifteen days.

Mrs. Moore was born in Green county, Pennsylvania, May 16, 1800. Here in the midst of a large family consisting of six own brothers, two own sisters, three half brothers, and five half sisters, she grew to womanhood, and in 1826, was married to Daniel Moore. Two years later, with an infant son, they migrated to Muskingum county. Upon a forty acre claim they erected a log cabin and moved into the same in the month of March, before doors, windows or floor had been put in place. In 1833, Mrs. Moore became a citizen of old Licking, with a reputation of the hardships attending a pioneer homesteading experience. Pioneering hardships were not the only troubles which this old lady was called upon to bear. In 1861 death took her husband, and in 1870 total blindness came upon her.

Mr. Moore was buried on the day that President Lincoln took the oath of office.

Mrs. Moore was the mother of seven children, three boys and four girls, three of whom, one son and two daughters, survive. The youngest child, Mrs. Maharg, lives in this county, and it is here that the good old lady lived for many years and died early Friday morning.

Twenty-eight grandchildren, thirty-five great-grand children, and three great-great-grand children are living, a goodly representation to perpetuate the strength and courage which enabled this woman to endure so many strenuous years.

While Mrs. Moore has been blind for more than thirty years, she has for years been afflicted in other ways yet with all of her afflictions she has borne her pain and solitude cheerfully and always had a kind word for everybody. For years she has been practically helpless.

Arrangements have been made to hold the funeral services at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning.

THE COURTS.

CHAS. DOWD FILES A SUIT FOR ALIMONY

Claims He Deeded Property to Wife by Her Request—Realty Transfers. Court House Notes.

Chas. Dowd, by his attorneys, Smythe & Smythe, has filed a petition for alimony against Lida Dowd. He says that he and the defendant were married in March, 1885, and three children were born of the marriage; that plaintiff furnished all the money with which certain real estate was purchased, but that, at the solicitation of defendant, he had the title made to her, that defendant is now conducting a restaurant business in Newark. He says he is a cripple and unable to make a living for himself; that she refuses to assist him in any way. He charges the defendant with extreme cruelty, with cursing him, refusing to cook for him or furnish him with his lunch when he was working for the B. & O. He asks for alimony pendente lite, and at the final hearing for permanent alimony.

The Dog Case.

Joan Mix, who has been on trial before Squire J. R. Atcherley, on a charge of abuse of a Great Dane dog belonging to Edmund Abbott, was found guilty Friday morning and fined $25 and costs. S. L. James represented the defendant, and made a motion for a new trial, which was overruled and the defendant was released on bond, the case being taken up on error. B. G. Smythe appeared for the prosecution.

The case has attracted considerable attention especially in North Newark, where the parties are well known. A great number of witnesses were examined, and much bitterness was apparent at the trial as existing between those interested in the case.

RESEMBLED MR. SCHEIDLER.

Major E. Steinbacher, of Akron, owner of one of the largest wholesale drug houses in the state, died Monday. He was the pioneer business man of Akron and was well known to many of the older residents of Millersburg—Holmes County Farmer.

Major Steinbacher bore a marked resemblance to Mr. Reinhard Scheidler, our lamented citizen who met his tragic death on Wednesday afternoon. In manner, appearance and every characteristic, no two men in Ohio resembled each other more strikingly. In their deaths both cities have cause to lament the loss of most valued citizens.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased. Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child cringes too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

A CLOSE CALL

Little Two Year Old Child Nearly Run Down by a Freight Train.

Summit Station, April 30—The little two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Dyser of this place had narrow escape from death. The little fellow broke a picket off the fence and made his way on to the railroad, just as B. & O. No. 104 came along. The engineer, who saw the danger of the child blew the whistle which attracted the attention of the family. Miss Bertha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dyser, saw the child on the track and running out succeeded in pulling him from his perilous position just as the train was within a few feet of him.

Had it not been for the presence of mind of Miss Bertha, the little boy would have been ground to death beneath the wheels. A short time afterwards Mrs. Dyser gave birth to a little son. All are doing well.

Mrs. J. T. Swisher, who has been suffering with lung trouble for some time, is reported as being considerably worse at this writing.

Messrs. F. M. Layton, J. D. Holcomb, Sherman Stowell and Dr. Wells were down to Buckeye Lake on Wednesday on a fishing expedition.

T. B. Banner received a letter from his son, James, at Chicago, announcing that he had passed the necessary examination, and that he is now a full fledged engineer.

WEDDING

Of Miss Adah Dix of Marion, Ohio, and Mr. William Larimore of Granville—The Star's Account.

A special to the Advocate from Granville Thursday announced the wedding of W. G. Larimore and Miss Dix at Marion, Ohio. The following account taken from the Marion Star:

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Dix, of East Center street, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, Wednesday afternoon, Miss Adah I. Dix, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dix, and Mr. William G. Larimore of Granville, being the principals.

The marriage rites were celebrated at 3.30 o'clock in the presence of a company numbering about twenty-five of the relatives and most intimate friends of the young people, Rev. Geo. E. Barnard of the Free Baptist church officiating.

The house was prettily decorated with spring bloom, a color theme of red, white and blue being observed throughout. Following the marriage ceremony and a brief season of congratulations, an elegant three course dinner was served. Carnations were given as favors.

The remainder of the afternoon was given to informal social entertainment, the affair proving a pleasant one for all present.

Mr. and Mrs. Larimore will remain in the city until Saturday, when they will go to their new home on a farm near Granville which the groom has in readiness for them.

Both are estimable young people with many friends throughout the city.

ROY MOORE

Who Disappeared Last February Has Not Yet Been Heard From—Was Last Seen in Columbus.

Columbus, May 1—Mrs. Roy J. Moore, of Newark, formerly Miss Finnegan, has notified the police that Roy J. Moore an electrical worker, left Zanesville February 21, and was seen in Columbus the next day. Mrs. Moore is very anxious to hear from her husband.

Mr. Moore, who was formerly manager of the Newark Telephone company was engaged by an electrical firm at Zanesville, when he disappeared. He left Zanesville presumably for Dayton but was last seen in Columbus.
